

WOMEN ON WEDNESDAY

Esther chapter 2, "A Contest for a Queen" sparked much discussion as we explored how to handle pressure from the world where "Beauty is a Treatment". We discussed what it might have been about Esther that enabled her to gain favor from all she came in contact with and how she managed to "walk the fine line of moderation without making others feel judged". We thought about how we might exhibit those same qualities in our lives. There is no assignment for next week so use this week to catch up through page 55 in the study guide and join us on February 10 for the next video on Chapter 3.

Questions? Robin Kolar 630-369-4539 Margaret Lambka 630-420-7885